Solstice Medical Recognized as “Company to Watch”

July 25, 2010 - Solstice Medical, LLC has been recognized by the Indiana Economic Development Corporation, its Small Business Development Center network, Purdue University and the Edward Lowe Foundation as an Indiana “Company to Watch” for 2010. Solstice was one of 41 companies recognized from more than 300 applications submitted for the prestigious award. The award recognizes privately held small businesses with under 150 employees and between $750,000 and $100,000,000 in annual revenues. The 41 "Companies to Watch" will be honored at an August 26 ceremony at the Indiana Roof Ballroom in Indianapolis. A video segment on Solstice Medical will be part of the evening’s agenda.

“Firms like these named 'Companies to Watch' continue to be the catalyst that is fueling Indiana's emergence from a turbulent national economy," said Mitch Roob, Secretary of Commerce and chief executive officer of the Indiana Economic Development Corporation. "Congratulations to this exemplary group of Indiana businesses that continue to invest in their communities and create new jobs in all corners of our state."

“We are extremely pleased to be honored by with this prestigious award,” said Dan Sands, CEO of Solstice Medical. “Solstice Medical will continue to bring jobs to Indiana by staying true to our core objective of utilizing cutting edge technology to reduce the overall cost of healthcare while improving patient care.”
